

KIA ORA FROM KYRAN

Kia ora Kahurangi whānau.

There's not much of the year to go now! The next few weeks are looking even more busy than things usually are.

Next week I will send home our final school newsletter for the year with lots of important end of year information. Many people have been asking about dates so I thought it best to share these with you sooner rather than later.

Lots of news from Kahurangi Friends...

Kahurangi Friends need our parent-connection-help to find a new Treasurer for our school's parent group.

Robyn our longstanding Treasurer has now moved on to the School Board; thank you Robyn!

Being the Treasurer for Kahurangi Friends means you get lots of *support and entails the following:

- Going to Kahurangi Friends Meetings, held once a term
- Doing the GST return twice a year (very easy and lots of support)
  Paying invoices if there are any
- Arrange and bank cash for events
- Paying the charity services our fee for being an incorporated society, once a year
- Prepare annual financial accounts
- Occasionally create invoices for rental of kai cooker
- Issue receipts for donations

*Unlimited access to help from Robyn & the Kahurangi Friends team

If you know anyone or you think you're keen to help, please get in touch: Kahurangifriends@gmail.com
